(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) to what extent it will help for India's oil need with the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) and (b) Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd (BPCL) had placed an order with M/s British Petroleum in August 2005 for import of one cargo of 600,000 bbls of Azeri Light crude oil on Spot Tender basis loading in October 2005 at Susa Port on the Black Sea. When the BTC pipeline is commissioned, trading of Azeri Light crude oil will start from Ceyhan on the Mediterranean Sea.

(c) With the commissioning of the BTC pipeline, Azeri Light crude oil would be available from Ceyhan if brought into the Indian Ocean, would compete with not only other alternative law sulphur crude oil from the Mediterranean basin (Libya, Egypt, Algeria etc.) and West Africa, but also provide competition to West Asian and South East Asian crudes. A more competitive pricing of these crude oils could evolve in the region into a well-prepared Asian oil and oil products market with an Asian marker as is the case in the sophisticated markets of the West, such as Western Texas Intermediate and Brent (dated). This is expected to greatly benefit the quantitative availability and competitive pricing of crudes available for purchase by India.
